

I am benefiting greatly from XM satellite radio's traffic and weather report. Being a sales manager that spend 1000 miles every week on the road covering Washington, Oregon and Northern California, I have the company of great programming from XM to keeping informed about news, current events, commentaries, weather, and traffic. I sincerely hope that the satellite radio can have the freedom of expanding its service and programming.